

Updates coming to comply with Bipartisan Budget Act of 2018

Summary: On February 9, 2018, President Donald Trump signed the Bipartisan Budget Act of 2018 (Pub. L. 115- 123) into law. This new law includes several provisions that modify third-party liability (TPL) rules related to special treatment of certain types of care and payment.

Amerigroup Community Care is currently working to update policies and make the necessary system configurations to comply with the Bipartisan Budget Act of 2018. If you have additional questions on this law, please refer to the Center for Medicaid and CHIP Services information bulletin released June 1, 2018:
