Family planning waiver program changes

Summary of update: Amerigroup Iowa, Inc. wants to inform you about new family planning waiver program changes effective July 1, 2017. We want to continue to be transparent with our providers about program changes.

Family planning waiver members

New program changes for family planning waiver members are effective July 1, 2017, per legislative change. These members will stop being identified on the 834 file and will transition to the Fee-For-Service program. The file will be updated on the last monthly file in June, terminating member eligibility.
