

October 2020 HEDIS® tip

With more provider offices using point of care (POC) testing for lead, it is important to remember that all lead results for POC testing must be reported to Maryland Department of Environment (MDE) in hard copy and must be processed manually by MDE.