Durable medical equipment: Provider orientation webinar

Join us for an online network provider orientation. Talk with Amerigroup Washington, Inc. representatives and get answers to questions you may have. We'll review information like:

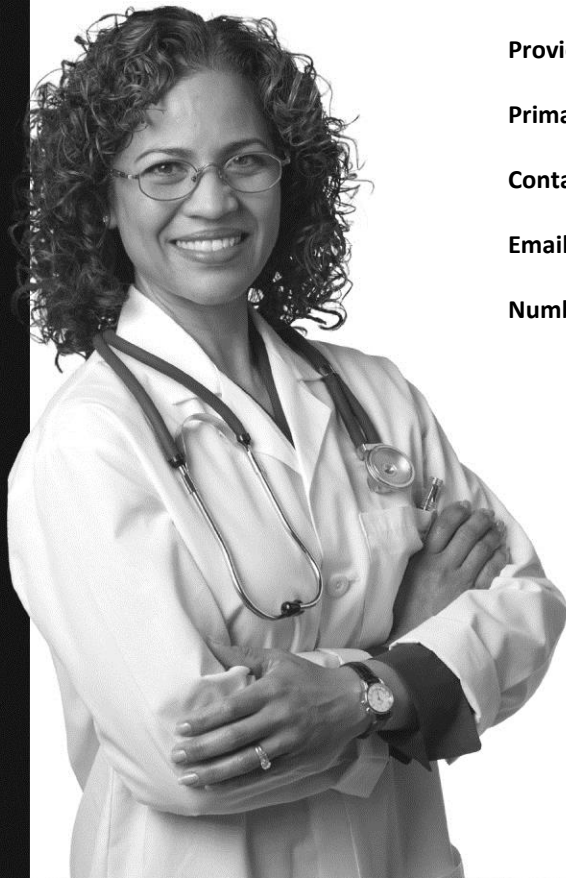

- Online tools
- Claims, coding and billing procedures
- Medical management
- Reference materials and support services
- Managing the transition from Univita to Amerigroup direct management

Orientation is required for all durable medical equipment (DME) vendors joining our network. If you cannot attend this webinar, please let us know so we can make alternate arrangements with you.

Online via WebEx
